City of Fontana:

Currently the City of Fontana does not require an alarm permit as of 8/1/18.

HOWEVER… The City does require Verified Response prior to dispatching the Police Department otherwise they may levy a fine of up to $350 to the homeowner.

Verified response means an alarm system that utilizes a feature to verify that an alarm activation is not accidental. Verification may come in the form of sound, video, a manually activated panic button, or an eyewitness account that indicates a crime is occurring, thereby constituting a "verified" response.

In lieu of Verified Response, we also offer Guard Response Service for your account within Fontana City limits.

The majority of our customers in Fontana use our Guard Response Service as a way to effectively protect their property and meet City code. Please contact our office (909) 982-7612 to set up on your account.

Sec. 22-127. - Fraudulent verification and prohibited call administrative fines.

(a) Fraudulent verification administrative fine. An alarm company operator shall pay to the City of Fontana, within 30 days of the invoice, an administrative fine for each fraudulent verification. The amount of the administrative fine shall be $200.00 per each fraudulent verification.

(b) Prohibited call administrative fine. An alarm company operator shall pay to the City of Fontana, within 30 days of the invoice, an administrative fine for each prohibited call. The amount of the prohibited call administrative fine shall be $150.00 per prohibited call. However, such a citation shall be expunged if within 14 days of the date of the invoice the alarm company operator presents to the police department a call log or other evidence establishing that the alarm company operator made the call in question to a law enforcement agency other than the Fontana Police Department and the other agency transferred the call to the Fontana Police Department.
